ANGEL'S GATE TO HOST GALA TO BENEFIT ANIMALS

LONG ISLAND, N.Y.--Angel's Gate Hospice for Animals will host its fourth annual Black and White Gala on Dec. 4 from 7-12 p.m.

Special guests and contributors of the gala include Martha Stewart, Oprah Winfrey and Jennifer Garner.

"Angel's Gate is an extraordinary place that gives so much love and support to each animal it houses. Every year, I look forward to this event and giving money to this organization that reaches out to the New York community and provides so much love to so many unwanted animal," said Oprah Winfrey, a contributor.

The gala includes a dinner catered by Southern Graces Catering, Inc., a silent auction with more than 200 items up for bid and musical accompaniment by the Motown band, Super T.

Tickets for the Angel's Gate Black and White Gala are $200 per person and are available through the organization's Web site at www.angelsgate.org.

Angel's Gate is a non-profit organization located in Long Island, N.Y. It provides a permanent home for physically and terminally ill animals from local, state, and national rescue and shelter organizations. Over the past 16 years, Angel's Gate has been able to care for more than 200 animals, making it the largest shelter of its kind in the country.
